National Webinar on "Digital Transformation-Pedagogical Changes" by Department of Physics

03.09.2020

The Department of Physics conducted a National Webinar on "Digital Transformation- Pedagogical Changes" on 03.09.2020. Mr. Nithin Pahwa, Microsoft Teams was the Resource Person.

The focus of the webinar was on the way the pandemic has resulted in the switch over to digital transformation. Covid-19 forced all to work from home virtually and remote work had a great moment. Education preferred transformational change which is significant in the work processes and produce improvement in performance.

Mr. Pahwa spoke about how the digital transformation in education can enhance instructional learning especially in higher education by creating a blended learning experience that combines both traditional classroom based methods and modern technology. He also stressed on the need for teachers and students to accept the change and benefit from it.

Orientation Programme/Workshop for Teaching Staff on 'Student-Centred Methodology and Learner Autonomy'

10.08.2018

The IQAC organized an Orientation Programme-cum-Workshop for the Teaching Staff on the topic 'Student-Centred Methodology and Learner Autonomy' on 10.08.2018. The Resource Person was Ms. P. V. Geetha Lakshmi Patnaik, IQAC Coordinator of the college. Ms. Patnaik is a certified Master Trainer, who was certified as a Master Trainer under the English Language Fellow Programme jointly sponsored by the Commissionerate of Collegiate Education of Andhra Pradesh and the U.S. State Department.

Ms. Patnaik introduced the concepts of SCM or Student-Centred Methodology and the need for learner autonomy. The differences between the traditional methods of teaching as opposed to the student-centred methods were demonstrated for the benefit of the participants. Student-centred learning puts students' interests first, acknowledging student voice as central to the learning experience. Differences in the role of the teacher in both the methods and the concepts of 'Sage on the Stage' and 'Guide on the Side' were introduced to the participants who received hands-on training in some of the methods of SCM, namely pair work, group work, task-based learning, etc.

The workshop was successful in sensitizing the faculty towards the need for adapting to the paradigm shift in education and the need to update teaching skills.

Two-Day workshop on 'Carbon Footprint' by the Department of Chemistry

06.02.2017 to 07.02.2017

A Two-Day Workshop was organized by the Department of Chemistry on the topic 'Carbon Footprint.' Dr. I. Vani, Assistant Professor of Chemistry, Government Degree College, Kukatpally, was the Resource Person.

In this workshop two models were prepared on how to reduce Carbon Footprint. The workshop was helpful in driving home the point that human beings have to be aware of the damage being done to the environment. Reduction of our carbon footprint is one of the most important sustainability initiatives that we can take up.

The teachers and students received training on the strategies to reduce carbon footprint. The participants understood that they should choose the ethics of care and try and repair the damage being done to the environment.

Orientation Program for Teaching and Non-Teaching Staff

on

The IQAC of the college conducted an Orientation Programme for the Teaching and Non-Teaching staff by the Principal on 09.06.2017. The objective of the programme was to welcome the staff to another new academic year and remind them about the policies and procedures of the college.

The Principal, Dr. K. Padmavathi, addressed the staff and said that teachers should teach their students to be perceptive and discerning. The Principal suggested that teachers should understand and teach their students to understand the value of character more than position or rank. The emphasis should be towards the teaching of values rather than just imparting knowledge. Another point that was emphasized during the session was the importance of passion and belief in teaching. Only a passionate teacher will be able to unfold the gifts and potentialities of the student.

Two-Day Faculty Development Programme

on

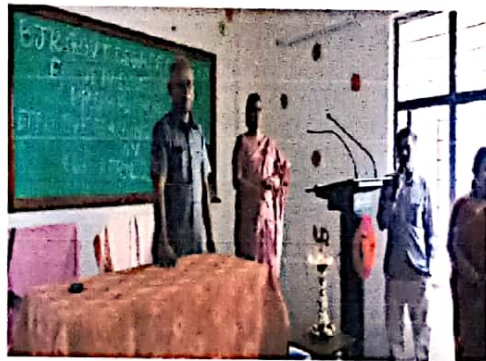

06.04.2016 to 07,04.2016

A 2-day Faculty Development programme on the theme of 'Effective Teaching Methodology' was organized by the IQAC, from 06.04.2016 to 07.04.2016. The objective of the programme was to provide training in some of the most significant aspects of Teaching-Learning.

A successful teaching environment conflates three integral parties: an effective teacher; students who are willing, prepared and capable; and supportive staff and administration.

In the Inaugural session, the Principal, Dr. K. Padmavathi spoke on how an 'effective teacher' strives to motivate and engage all his/her students in learning rather than simply accepting that some students cannot be engaged and are destined to do poorly. She even suggested to make the subject matter understood rather than on completing the course.

The Programme was most beneficial to all the participants.
