Induction/Orientation Programme for Freshers

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell of the college conducts an Induction/Orientation Programme every year to welcome the new students. The programme is an important event as the Principal, Staff and senior students come together to introduce these new students to all the details of the college. Some of the most important issues that are discussed in this programme are as follows:

- The Teaching and Non-Teaching Staff in the college
- Facilities like classrooms, labs, ICT facilities, etc.
- The Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) and Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)
- Examinations – Internal and External
- The Code of Conduct/Ethics and the Anti-Ragging policy of the college
- Programmes related to Human Values and Professional Ethics
- Policies and procedures of the college
- Details of Scholarships
- Career Guidance and Training for Employability Skills
- Extension activities through the N.S.S., Eco Club, Institutional Social Responsibility Cell, etc.
